JIM HI
DAVE

Jim,

You're really a riot
to have a class with.
Remember all the fun times we had in Contemporary Affairs!
You drove Mrs Wypocki
crazy. Have a nice
summer.

Suck it always,

What a looser Sue Kalowski
see you around.

~~Jim Burhewicz~~

Jim,
So a crazy
kid from second
hour but then again
who wouldn't be crazy
from our class of Cont. kids.
Have a great summer too.
Take care
Dave & Sue,
Trixie

★ NUT ★
★ T.M.N. ★
Have a good summer
and a good time

Jim,

So a real nut who made a real hour worth going to. I'm glad I got to know you
this year. Have a good summer & don't party
too much!

Love
Stacey

Jim,

I don't think anybody is
as fun in class as you are.
Go on to college and keep on cutting down those teachers.
And have fun doing it! Good Luck,

Steve Ray

Oh Jim
I think you're the greatest kid who ever walked this earth
I hope I see
you all summer

Physical changes: indoors, to a magnificent structure; outdoors, to a "classroom" carved out of a colorful ravine. These offer accents to L-P Life.

Breaking Out In Homecoming Style

L-P Homecoming Super-Week, built on traditional activities, was given new life in 1980. New students creating it. New students enjoying it.

Together and separations are lubricants for change. We are continually modified by associations. Departure over the summer, or following graduation, means new experiences, new horizons.

Breaking Out In Style

Amy Wren 1980 Homecoming Queen

Such Language

By Mary Mallie
And Rose Munson

"Hey, Rose, check out D.L.
Nice pockets, huh?"

"Well, I don't know, Mary, they're not anything special."

"Rose, I don't think we're talking about the same thing."
"Oh!"

Have you ever heard someone use an expression that you're not familiar with?
We've been listening-and-noting a great deal of talk with students and teachers around L-P, and are passing along some of the "different" expressions we heard.

"Hey, what's the buzz?"

"There's a really good party

out at Frisbeeland.

"Thanks. Party-hardy! . . ."

Many students, we noted, instead of using "cuss-words" substituted these sayings to expressed their innermost feelings: like "horse-hockey,"
"cotton-pickin'", "up-chuck"
or "shuck-darns!"

Some favorite "cut-downs"
are "social deviant," "fir-vies" "delinquent," "stoner"
and "scum-bum." Such people are often told "you gross me out" and "grow up!"

On the other hand, some good things to say about someone are "you're too cool," "what a hunk!" and
"nice pockets."

Student happiness can be expressed this way: "hot dog and applesauce," "that's happy," "let it shine," "let's get nuts" and "be mellow."

Of course, opinions vary among students. These are the expressions on both sides of the fence: "that's life," "let it pass," "really?", "take a hike," "well, shut my mouth,"
"that's a bummer," "I'm sure," "who asked?" and the lengthy, "I would if I could but I can't, so I won't."

A favorite of favorites for the more modest: "oh, dopey me!"

You may want to add these observations: "When in doubt,
mumble." "You're eight cents
short of a dime." "There's no friends in love, war and semester tests."

SKIP THIS PAGE TODAY but be certain to read it carefully in May, 2001.

We'll bet that less than half of the 1981 expressions will make sense to you 20 years from now.
It should be fun trying to interpret them.

ABOVE, RIGHT: Junior Brad Roegner lofts one along the fairway.

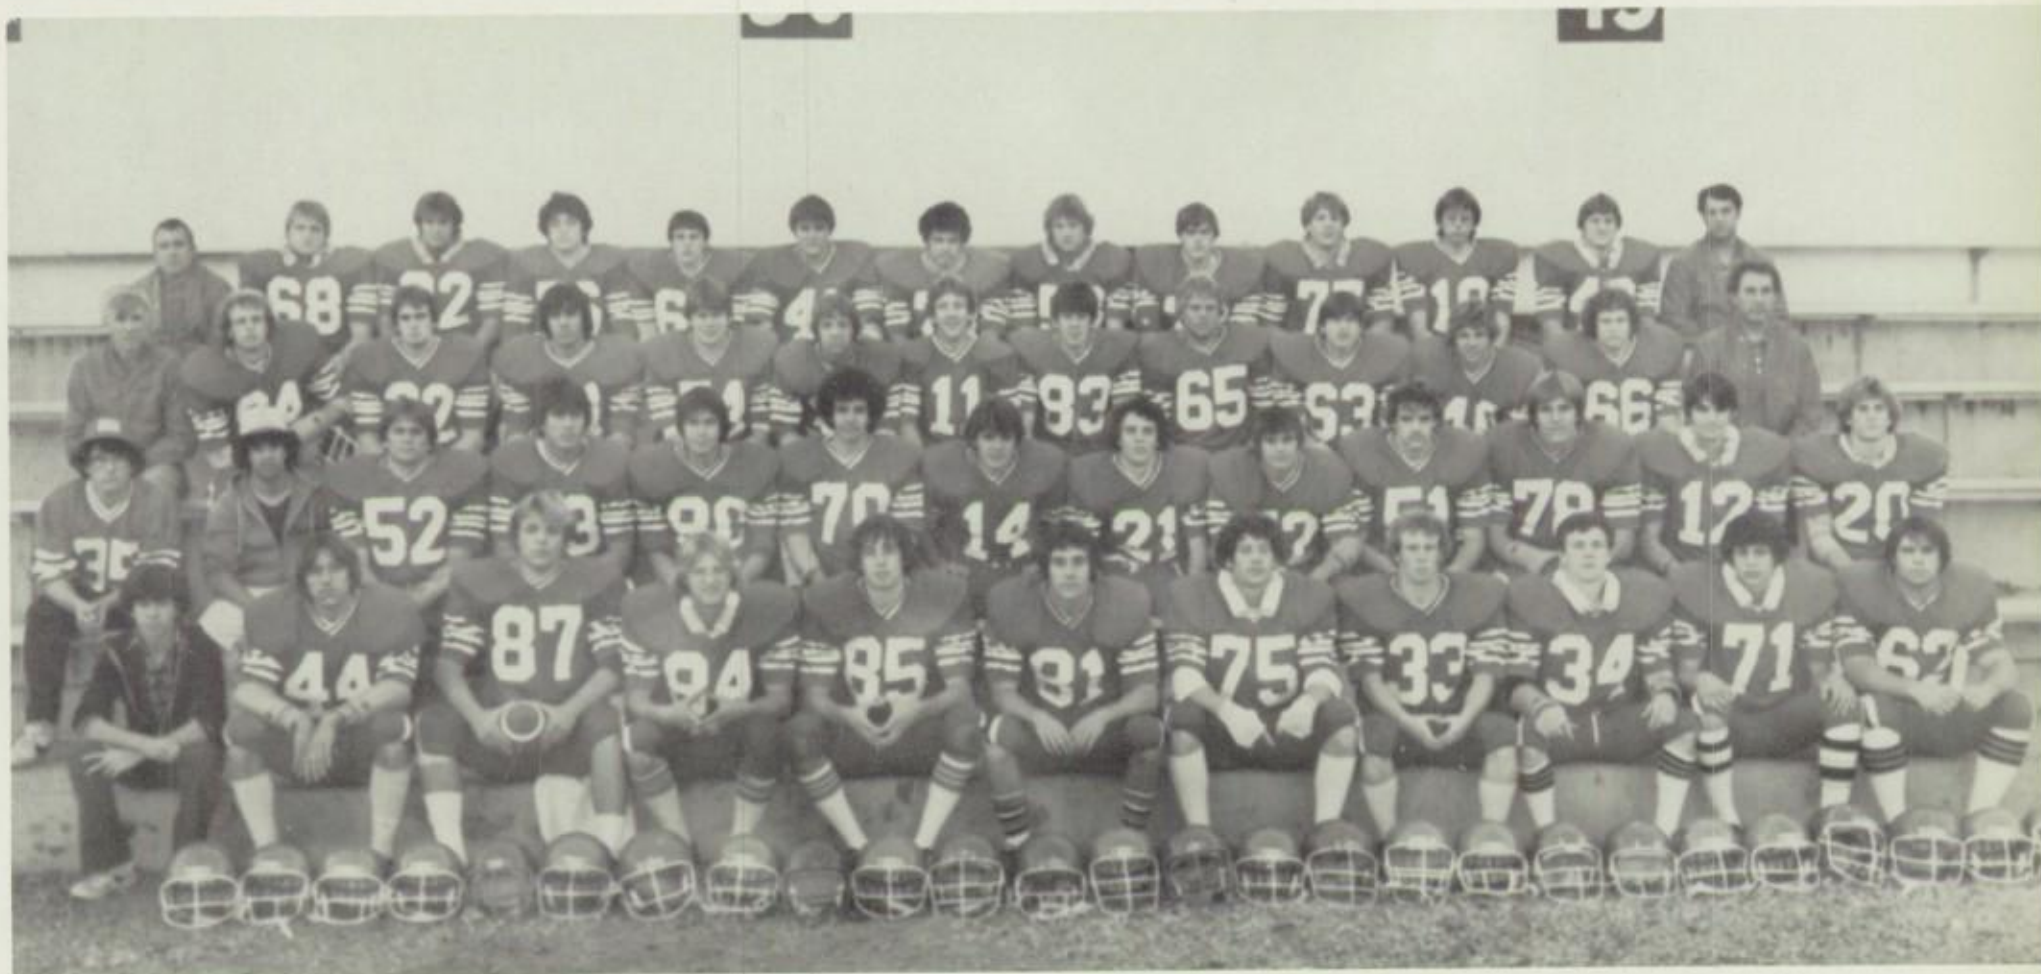

Varsity golfers took 18 matches against three losses, and placed second at the Dixon Invitational, the District, and NCIC tournaments. The Cavalier golf team had an 11-0 conference record.

About co-captains Yazbec and Roegner, Coach George Weber had these comments: "Mickey and Tom have been on L-P golf squads for the past four years, during which time, the team won 85 matches, losing only seven."

CAMILLO VALLE (L-P Senior, 5-11, 202). A three-sport athlete who ranks No. 68 in a class of 400, he carried 169 times for 1,078 yards in 1980, and broke the school career ground-gaining record with 2,539 yards. Two-time all-NCIC selection. Chicago Sun-Times All-State pick. Led L-P to the Class 4-A final in 1979.

Team "work" is made up of the "statistics" pounded out by individual players.

Here are some highlights of the 1980 Inca season and those who carved their ways into the record books:

Tim Fagan threw 64 passes for 24 completions for 470 yards. He punted 25 times for a 34-yd. average.

Jed Batchelder scored five TD's and two XPT's, and rushed 74 times for a total of 388 yards.

Defensively, Jeff Pistono had 60 tackles and 14 assists, closely followed by Bill Guskusky's 58 tackles and 20 assists.

The team recovered nine fumbles, sacked eight QB's and intercepted two passes.

Bill Guskusky and Jed Batchelder were elected 1980 Inca co-captains by team members.

Absent: Brian Tambori, Tom Turczyn.

STATISTICS: In the final game, the Aztecs beat an undefeated Ottawa Frosh team, 20-14.

Ron Weber scored 68 points — three TD's each against Ottawa and Streater; two against St. Bede; one each against Geneseo and East Aurora. He clicked off 1,020 yards in 139 carries for a 6.35 yard average.

On defense, Leo Vela spent most of his game time in the opponent's backfield, making 48 tackles and 15 assists.

The "B" Squad was able to book only three games, winning over Dixon and Ottawa and playing to a scoreless tie with Geneseo.

Girls Volleyball: up, Up, UP!

Cavalier Cagers Take 19-6 On The season

"We set some goals for ourselves this year — stiff ones that the team worked hard to achieve," said Coach Chips Giovanine.

And, by the end of the regular-schedule-plus-one, it had met them.

"We set out to win the conference — and we got a piece of first place," he said. The victory against Ottawa in the final home game gave the Cavs a 9-2 NCIC mark, tying them for the conference championship with Rochelle and Sterling.

"We were determined to put 20-wins together this year — and we did that, too," Coach Giovanine said. With a win over Dixon in the regional opener at Rock Falls, the string went to 20-6.

"We also had planned to beat a tough Sterling team this season," the varsity coach said. "In regular season play against the Golden Warriors, we were down by nine at the buzzer — 75-64."

But in the regional play-off, things were different. The Cavaliers were never headed, winning by ten points over Sterling, 59-49, and going into the East Moline sectional with a 21-6 record.

It had been a good season for the Cavalier cagers!

BOTTOM: Tom Roegner applies some defensive pressure on East Moline during the Cavaliers' 62-51 victory in the L-P gym.

1980-81 Varsity Basketball Team

RIGHT: There's plenty of congestion under the Gene-seo basket as Tim Barker, Mark Doyle (hidden) and Tom Roegner close-in on the ball. L-P won 72-55. BOTTOM: Sparkplug guard Kevin Carey drives between a pair of Dunbar defenders in a 73-62 Cavalier win over the Chicagoans. BELOW: It was an exciting season for L-P fans and players, brilliantly guided by Coaches Chips Giovanine and Ev Taylor. ADJOINING PAGE. Junior Kevin Mudge shoots over an Ottawa defender in the conference wind-up, putting up 10 points in the 69-57 win.

Teammates Tom Roegner and Tim Barker were Associated Press Class AA All-State honorable mention picks.

A Great
Cav
Season!

It was a season of close games for the Inca cagers, when competition was keen — perhaps, more than usual.

"There was marked improvement in our ball handling and rebounding throughout the year," said Coach Scott Martens. "Our best efforts, in order, were a 66-57 victory over East Moline; a 67-47 win at Ottawa, and a 67-49 decision over Aurora East."

A prediction by the sophomore cage mentor: "With hardwork over the summer, this team could have a bright future."

L-P's choral groups were truly musically-active this year. TOP: "Christmas '80", the traditional holiday concert, was held in west gymnasium. "Matthiessen Memories" and the spring musical, "The Sound of Music" were presented in the extensively redecorated Matthiessen Memorial Auditorium. ABOVE: Officers of the Advanced Choir. Mike Mini, president; Julie Vanderlip, vice president; Bob Zibert, treasurer; Amy Wren, secretary. ABOVE, RIGHT: Mr. Manahan adjusts choir robes for Mike Mini. RIGHT: Rehearsals were held this year at many locations during auditorium restoration. This one, under Mr. Dickerson in the old cafeteria.

Reagan wins big

Reagan overwhelms Carter in senior straw ballot

Ronald Reagan defeated incumbent President Jimmy Carter decisively in a straw-vote conducted by two Caval-Currents reporters among members of L-P's senior class two weeks ago.

Reagan won over Carter, nearly two-to-one, 126-70. Independent John B. Anderson received 49 votes from the upperclassmen.

Two hundred eighty-three votes were cast in fifteen homerooms Oct. 24 on ballots listing the three major presidential candidates.

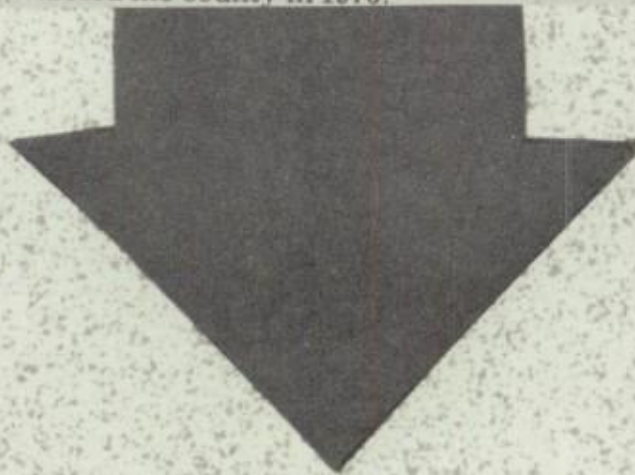

There were 38 spoiled ballots, according to tabulations by juniors Beth Giordano and Lisa Ballerini, who conducted the straw-vote.

By The Associated Press

In a stunning climax to Campaign '80, Illinoisans cast their future with native son Ronald Reagan and joined a national landslide that knocked President Carter from office.

Reagan was catapulted into the presidency Tuesday on voters' rejection of the way Carter had handled the nation's economy, military and foreign affairs. He carried nearly every county outside of the most populous, Cook, where Carter was winning but at a narrower margin than that by which he carried the county in 1976.

FRESHMEN

Breaking Out The Freshman Fax

L-P's Data Processing Department discovered these facts about the Class of 1984: 1. Only six L-P freshmen were born in foreign countries — two in Mexico, and one each in Canada, India, Viet Nam and Hong Kong. 2. Thirty-two freshmen were born in 17 states other than Illinois. 3. One in every four L-P students were born in Illinois communities outside the high school district. The rest were born at hospitals in La Salle and Peru. 4. Finally, Patrick Sittnick is the only member of the Class of '84 who was born on Christmas Day. The year was 1966.

Caval-Currents: Fall Staff

These students were enrolled in "journalism" during the fall semester; and, among their assignments was the gathering of school news stories for use in Caval-Currents, weekly student tabloid called "TEEN-TRIB". They are Cyndee Argubright, Lisa Ballerini, Bernie Brolley, Debbie Dresbach, Beth Giordano, Faye Ho, Sue Koplin, Sandy Lamboley, Pat Lucas, Nina Marzetta, Sheryl Mecagni, Chris Novreske, Peggy Pangrcic, Tom Reese, Ben Rocke, Rose Schweickert, Darla Sexton, Lynn Tamborini, Michele Urban.

From February through May, these reporters dug up their own news stories, wrote and edited them for Caval-Currents. It was all part of a one-semester, one-credit English course called JOURNALISM WORKSHOP. Caval-Currents is published every Tuesday during the school year by the La Salle News-Tribune. Spring staff members are Peggy Andrews, Rena Bekeleski, Laura Bowie, Ann Bunzell, Greg Cote, Michelle Etscheid, Karen Ficek, Rhonda Huhn, Carol Koenig, Carol Lawrence, Laurie Liebhart, Julie Marini, Tyler McGlasson, Vicky Milby, Tracy Murdock, Sheila Nolasco, Dan Picco, Laurie Scoma, Judy Smith, Sharon Wedic, Peggy Spelich, Kathy Zulkowsky.

Williams, "Mr. T", adviser, and Melanie Alonzo look over yearbooks from dozens of high schools assembled there. 3. Back at the ranch, Chris Garzanelli, Scoma and Diane Scott ponder over the pages. 4. Checking student names are almost daily assignments for L-P yearbook people. Production Manager Debbie Dresbach, Scott, Alonzo and Garzanelli do just that. 5. Co-editor Sue Smith knocks out some "Yearbook Sale" posters. 6. And the crew helps distribute them. Kneeling, Garzanelli, Jackie Rodda, Williams. Standing, Schaede, Smith, Alonzo, Scott, Scoma and Dresbach. 7. During the seminar: for posterity, Sue Smith models a jersey produced by the yearbook printers.

Jim, To a sweet
 guy I just meet a week ago. I hope to know and you alot longer I mean alot better and feel the same. I hope you gonna tell you this in person but since I've got the yearbook here.
 I'll write it in here.
 So you will remember
 it. Here it goes. Ever since I met you I've liked you.
 But since I got to know
 you I really got to like you alot. And I was just wondering the
 if you feel you same way. You can tell me
 the answer
 in person

not in a yearbook.
which I don't have. But that's how I goes. Well hope to see your sexy pics during the summer. I can't write anything about you
just like Hope to see

KILROY
 WAS HERE

This ELL ESS PE yearbook may be regarded as a "senior" book — a pictorial report of graduation-year events at L-P in 1980-81. A kind of final-record of four-year associations with other students, with clubs and teams, with classes and teachers.

Of course, it's also a memo-along-the-way for underclassmen as well.

Therefore, we hope you "like" this book today and will refer to it often in the future.

Perhaps, then, when you're BREAKING OUT this school diary in 1991 — or 2001 — you'll feel its real purpose.

We hope so

Have a Great
Summer.
Mick Tuley

It's been great
having you in C.E.
we didn't give you a rough enough time, I should have. May be next year.

Jim,
to a pretty cool
kid & met last year.
Good luck this summer
and don't forget to party.
Chuck Foster

Jim, to a really nice guy I had in gym + this year. Last. Didn't get to talk to you much. You were ALWAYS flirting with Brenda. Oh well, MAYBE NEXT YEAR! YOU HAVE
balls(zits)
though. Love & Luck
ALWAYS,
